

CONTENTS

Preface	3
Introduction	9
I Prisons
Open jails
1 Open and innovative	15
2 Open jail, Badin	21
Children behind bars
3 Borstals do not a reformatory make!	25
4 Juvenile jail, women's prison	29
5 Children in detention	33
6 Young offenders in remand home	37
7 Rehabilitating juvenile prisoners	43
8 Juveniles in custody	49
Corruption in jails
9 No bribe, no rights	55
10 Corruption can't reform	59
11 Corruption at its height	63
Agony of prisoners
12 Ordeal of a forgotten prisoner	69
13 Prisoners are human too	75
14 From the frying pan into the fire	81
15 Fishermen's ordeal	87
16 Whither jail industries?	91

Crowding in jails

17	The bane of overcrowding	95
18	Law to ease crowding	101
19	What the experts say	105

Drugs and mentally ill in prisons

20	Jailed addicts <sup>1</sup> burgeoning numbers	111
21	Plight of the mentally ill in prison	115
22	Drug menace in juvenile prison	121

II Women 125

23	Women and green revolution	127
24	Shah Bano case in retrospect	131
25	Bank for the poorest of the poor	135
26	Rape victims seldom get redress	141
27	Enigma of women's courts	147
28	Hudood Ordinances: In the balance	151
29	Violence within	157
30	Time for change	171
31	Hurdles insurmountable	175
32	Providing panah	179

III Labour 185

33	Learning about their rights	187
34	Serfdom in twentieth century	193
35	What future do they have	199
36	A disease ignored	205
37	Long hours, poor food, physical abuse	209
38	Organising the unorganised	215
39	Piecemeal measures are harmful	219
40	Vulnerable child workers	225
41	Education for workers' children	231

IV Human Rights	235
42 What a jurist says	237
43 Abuse of human rights	247
44 Testimony on torture	255
45 To hang or not to hang	259
46 When one is not a Muslim	265
47 Dr. Mubashir Hasan on disparity in wealth	273
48 Religion and state	277
49 Justice to the poor	283
50 Limited legal aid	298
51 Truth about torture in police custody	293
52 Torture	301
53 Crusader for rights of minorities	307
54 Clean justice	311
55 Police torture	319