

Welcome

The organizing committee of CONIELECOMP 2014 welcomes you to the Universidad de las Américas Puebla, Mexico.

The 24th International Conference on Electronics, Communications and Computers (CONIELECOMP 2014) is organized by the Department of Computing, Electronics and Mechatronics of the Universidad de las Américas Puebla, México.

This International Conference is also technically supported by the IEEE, Section Puebla.

CONIELECOMP 2014 encompasses research papers, tutorial sections and plenary talks given by prominent experts covering key areas of the technological trends in the field of Computing, Electronics and Mechatronics. We hope our Conference will provide all attendees a unique forum for the exchange of ideas and results. Furthermore, the technical program committee has assembled an excellent program.

We would like to thank all the members of the organizing committee, the technical program committee, the invited speakers, our sponsors, the paper reviewers and most of all the authors for contributing their research work. Due to their contributions, it has been possible to create a technical program of high scientific quality.

We encourage you to enjoy the hospitality of Cholula and its archeological places, as well to renew academic relationships and do new ones. We hope that you will find CONIELECOMP 2014 to be an innovative and exciting event.

Welcome to Cholula, Mexico.
