

JAAGTE RAHO

We have covered half way to our next national conference which is scheduled to be held at Bangalore and this midway journey was full of interesting events and achievements. This period will be remembered as major turning point in the history of Private Security & Intelligence

Industry. Nobody among us ever thought that one day many State Government will join hand with CAPSI to recruit and train security guards for their placement with guarding companies, those were always felt starved of educated and trained manpower. Whenever guarding companies lost a contract it was invariably due to short strength or ill trained staff who could not create safe environment for the client. The Government of Punjab has started a new academy to train security guards and two batches have already passed out. The DGP of the State Police took the salute of the passing out parade. The State has already agreed to commence diploma and certificate courses for supervisory cadres and for the Security Management. The Government of Rajasthan has signed a MOU with CAPSI to establish Rural Institute of Security Education (RISE) in each district of the State. Imagine getting well trained manpower from such institutes without spending money. This scenario will change the face of the PSI and will provide stability and growth to your business. We are in the process of having identical relationship with few more State Governments so that benefit of these CAPSI initiatives must reach to all members. Central Government is equally happy to sponsor such employment generation schemes so that National Rozgar Yojnas are effectively implemented at all levels.

Other most significant events happened during this period is the acquisition of a UK based Shield Guarding Limited by Topsgroup. Who ever thought that an Indian Guarding company will ever take over a British Security Company? Indeed a commendable achievement by Dr. Rahul Nanda. Equally significant event happened when Manjeet Rajain of Peregrine hit the tong of UK Stock Exchange by listing his new ventures Mortic, a new Security Solution Corporation. Our Rambo, BR Lohia of Eagle Hunters joined hands with MBM of Dubai to launch a facility management joint venture. A global PE major DE Shaw picked up 14% stakes of SIS of our grand master Mr RK Sinha. This is the FIRST time that a foreign hedge fund has invested in an Indian Security company. Arjun Walia joined hands with Securitas in India. It is again a major achievement. More foreign VC companies are hunting for similar ventures. All such events have created a new image for our industry. Many foreign based Investigation companies are looking for similar ventures. But all exercises are happening under the COVER. My friends, enjoy your new status and keep on making CAPSI move forward.

Punjab Trains Youth For Private Security Jobs

The Tribune interviews DGP Punjab

Youngsters trekking it to the state police headquarters here only to read the almost permanent sign stating "Bharti band hai" can now hope for being gainfully employed with the Punjab police initiating a social welfare scheme to train rural youth for employment in the private sector. The move has already seen results with the first batch of 250 rural youth getting two-month training at the police centre at Jahankalan in Hoshiarpur district. The second batch of trainees started their course even as the Punjab police is on the way of establishing a security training institute at Jahankalan.

DGP N.P.S. Aulakh told The Tribune that the idea had originated following a meeting between the CAPSI and Chief Minister Parkash Singh Badal. He said the organisation had requested that police help in training youth for security services as the government has made it mandatory for the security agencies to employ personnel who have passed a certified test.

Aulakh said CAPSI, while citing the increased demand for private security personnel, had projected a demand for 50 lakh such personnel in the country in the coming years. He said trained security personnel were also in demand in West Asia and security training taken by them could help them in procuring jobs abroad. The security agencies that had advocated setting up of the training course have already come forward to offer jobs to the candidates who have taken the training. Most of the candidates have been offered placements in the region as well as other states. The course is open to unemployed graduates also, as CAPSI has promised supervisory jobs for those with better qualifications. The candidates have been trained in wielding weapons, handling emergency situations, including crisis situations like a bomb blast, besides training in handling of metal detectors and basic communication and computer skills.

The Punjab police is gung-ho about the initiative and the Chief Minister has chipped in by allocating 10 crore this year for the establishment of a separate security training institute at Jahankalan through the Punjab Infrastructure Development Board (PIDB). The trainees only have to pay for their uniforms while their boarding and food expenses will be borne by the state.

ROZGAAR MELAS - The Backbone Of The Service Industry

-by Lt Col (Er) S. Kaul, FIE, (Retd)

The Rajasthan Govt organized the Shekhawati Rozgar Mela in collaboration with CAPSI & APDI, at Sikar, Rajasthan, on 12th May 2008, under the able administration and guidance of Hon'ble Chief Minister Smt. Yashodhara Rajee. It was the first of its kind in the country. The entire exercise was an extremely successful one, gave excellent results and was exceptionally encouraging. It now seems, as if, a major platform has been devised with satisfaction, for the Rozgaar Needy and the Rozgar Providers, to come to the fore, not only in one State, but across India, not only in India, but in the entire World.

Aspirant Youth For Employment During The Rozgar Mela At Sikar

The complete affair in the end resembled a real 'Pratham Pag' (First Step) in the direction, which every body in the Private Security Industry had been groping in the dark for a very long time. The solution and the message now seemed to have reached every provider's doorstep that is 'Reach the Source', wherever it is, and whenever you can!

In Hindi we quote at times, that is "Payasa Kuyen Ke Paas Jata Hain" and not the vice versa. But the Sikar Rozgar Mela has proved it to be otherwise. The message is very clear now, that even in the Service Industry, life is a two-way traffic. This was in turn very wonderfully elaborated by Mr. M L Mehta, IAS, Deputy Chairman, 'Rajasthan Mission on Livelihood' (RMO L), explaining that when an idea to organize such a Rozgaar Mela at Rajasthan was mooted, how he felt elated in thinking that, if he now acts like a priest (Purohit), it will help not only hundreds, but thousands and may be hundred thousands in the times to come. His explanation was well crafted and invited an extensive applause, when he painstakingly explained his role in the Rozgaar Yojna and likened it a Purohit to a 'Dulha & Dulhana', who brings the two of them on a common platform and gives them directions through various mantras to start leading a preferred life, and which is then up to them thereafter, to make it as fruitful as it can be.

Mr. Mehta explained that the needy does not exactly know where to go and look for an opportunity in the first place, and that the Security Agencies may also be waiting for the right candidate and in the process losing a lot of precious time. Hence, this common platform, herein created will help both the needy and the provider to come together for a fruitful & meaningful working and livelihood. He further narrated that how an advanced State like Gujarat in Infrastructure and otherwise too, after coming to know of our plans of holding such Rozgar Melas in Rajasthan, has been knocking at the doors of our Govt to pick up the essentials of this noble & effective idea for implementation of the same in their Gujarat State, in the near future.

Mrs. Rajpal, IAS, District Commissioner, Sikar District, spoke about the importance of the enthusiastic support by CAPSI in furthering the cause of assurance of employment of the youth in her district, and commended the efforts put in by CAPSI in making the whole affair a great success.

Sh. Ram Kishore Meena, Hon'ble Labour & Employment Minister of Rajasthan, spoke at length, and gave a brilliant analysis and insight of the budgetary allocation, which came through the good offices of the Hon'ble Chief Minister, and due to her intervention, that such Rozgar Melas are going to be great successful ventures by his Ministry as per his Chief Minister's Agenda and the concern of his State's youth. He repeatedly appreciated, and with great enthusiasm, the initiative taken by CAPSI under the leadership of Kunwar Vikram Singh, Chairman, CAPSI, and Mr. Mahesh Sharma, Secretary General, CAPSI and his team at Delhi.

The thundering words of Veteran Kunwar Vikram Singh from the dais echoed the spirit of CAPSI, that this highly successful initiative by both the Govt of Rajasthan and CAPSI, has now taken the shape of a 'Beacon', ensuring that the Rajasthan Govt now remains as a leader in the Country, for this joint effort of creating & providing job opportunities not only in one district or the entire State of Rajasthan, but in the entire Nation. This invited a loud applause, especially from among the youth gathered there. Kunwar Vikram brought out the fact that presently there are about 50 lakh Security Personnel, double the combined strength of Army, Para-Military, Police in the Country, and that this demand was growing @ 25% annually. He even advised the young crowd, that like the Army, they have tremendous inbuilt promotion avenues in the Security Services in the civil too, wherein they can easily move up the ladder from being a Security Guard to the posts of Assistant Managers, and Managers in a reasonable time frame. This process would help them to develop their own personality too, enabling them to protect the interest of their respective families in the times to come. This message was very loud and clear, leaving no doubts in people's minds, while many dignitaries on the dais shook their heads in affirmation.

The Chairman further assured that in next five years or so, at this rate, hundreds of thousands of youths could be recruited from the State of Rajasthan alone, and that our joint effort would remain alive till we achieve our collective aim to fulfill the aspirations of our Worthy Chief Minister, Mrs. Vasundhara Rajee. As is said, it is a team effort which ultimately yields results, hence credit goes to all the 31 Security Agencies who participated having come from all over the Country to include Punjab, Delhi & NCR, Hyderabad, Bangalore, Pune, Mumbai, M.P. etc. More so giant Corporate like Infosys etc. flew in their senior executives from Bangalore to attend the Rozgar Mela in support of their Security Providers across India. The success of the Rozgaar Mela lies in the enthusiasm shown by over 2000 Ex-Servicemen and substantiated strength of more than 10,000 civilian youth who started swelling right at the start of the Mela having come from far flung areas of Sikar District, and remained busy through out the day, filling Registration Forms with not only one organization, but with many more.

The Hon'ble Chief Minister's endeavor to open the flood gates for the youth of her State to even fly across Indian Boundaries is colossal, a prominent example is of a carpenter of her State who was given an on the spot appointment letter for his Rozgar in Canada. Many Agencies likewise gave a number of Appointment Letters on the spot to many candidates selected the same day, besides thousands having been registered during the one day Mela. I happen to ask one such seeker as to how many places he has registered his name! Straight came his reply...definitely more than 10 Agencies, Sir. I couldn't believe my ears. I realized then that this individual now has choice of 10 agencies to work with. In other words it can be said that, now not just one opportunity, but 10 such opportunities are knocking at his door, and that in the times to come he is bound get Rozgar after Rozgar i.e. should one fail, he has a sure chance to carry forward his requirement to the next in the row, in his favour. This message must go to the Hon'ble Chief Minister Mrs. Vasundhara Rajee, for the credit goes to her, where in so many souls must be showering their Blessings on her, it is an unimaginable thing to happen.

Amazingly, the whole Mela was organized so peacefully & efficiently and almost parallel to a large scale Army Recruitment Camp was worth experiencing. In a manner it set the ball rolling in the Country to meet the demand and supply of the Services being rendered by various Security Agencies across the Country. The whole show thus culminated with cheers and applause from one and all, and many enthusiastically posing for group photographs on the dais, so as to be part of this historic event, towards 'Mega Goal Setting' by the Rajasthan Govt & CAPSI combined, for a much needed noble cause in India at large!

Notes from the ED's Desk

It is heartening to share the positive comments from our members of the CAPSI & APDI on the SECURITY POST. Encouraging comments on the design and the contents of the SECURITY POST have also been received from the Security Professionals, who have received the copy . I am not only sure but confident that most of you would like to show case your businesses through the subsequent issues of SECURITY POST, which will find the place in the offices of the National / Multi National Companies, Embassies / High Commissions, Government Offices at the Centre and States, Central Police Organizations and the Members of the PHD Chamber of Commerce & Industry besides Security/Detective Professionals and Agencies.

Happy reading and best of luck for your business ahead.
