

Contents

Acknowledgements.....vii
List of Contributors .....ix
Preface .....xi

1. Foundations and Approaches to the Study of Care in the Past..... 1
William Southwell-Wright, Rebecca Gowland, and Lindsay Powell

Section 1 Care and the Life Course

2. Childcare in the Past: The Contribution of Palaeopathology .....23
Mary Lewis

3. The “Terrible Tyranny of the Majority”: Recognising Population
Variability and Individual Agency in Past Infant Feeding Practices .....39
Ellen Kendall

4. Precious Things: Examining the Status and Care of Children in Late Medieval England through the Analysis of Cultural and Biological Markers .....53
Heidi Dawson

5. That “Tattered Coat Upon a Stick” the Ageing Body: Evidence for Elder
Marginalisation and Abuse in Roman Britain.....71
Rebecca L. Gowland

Section 2 Care, Impairment and Disability

6. The Palaeolithic Compassion Debate – Alternative Projections of Modern-Day Disability into the Distant Past.....93
Nick Thorpe

7. Setting the Scene for an Evolutionary Approach to Care in Prehistory:
A Historical and Philosophical Journey .....111
David Doat

8. "A Long Waiting for Death": Dependency and the Care of the Disabled in a 19th Century Asylum ..... 125
Shawn M. Phillips
9. Prayers and Poultices: Medieval Health Care at the Isle of May,
Scotland, c. 430–1580 AD ..... 141
Marlo Willows

Section 3 Care and Non-Human Animals

10. Towards a Zooarchaeology of Animal "Care" ..... 169
Richard Thomas
11. Rare Secrets of Physicke: Insect Medicaments in Historical Western Society ..... 189
Gary King
12. Concluding Thoughts and Future Directions..... 215
Rebecca Gowland, Lindsay Powell, and William Southwell-Wright