

Contents

Claudia Maienborn and Angelika Wöllstein Introduction.....	1
Section I: Events - states - causation
Manfred Bierwisch The event structure of CAUSE and BECOME.....	11
Stefan Engelberg Stativity, supervenience, and sentential subjects.....	45
Anita Mittwoch Do states have Davidsonian arguments? Some empirical considerations.....	69
Kay-Eduardo González-Vilbazo and Eva-Maria Remberger Ser and estar . The syntax of stage level and individual level predicates in Spanish.....	89
Horst Lohnstein Sentence connection as quantificational structure.....	113
Section II: Event nominate
Artemis Alexiadou Gerund types, the present participle and patterns of derivation.....	139
Ingrid Kaufmann Referential arguments of nouns and verbs.....	153
Section III: Events in composition
Angelika Kratzer Building resultatives.....	177
Daniel Hole Reconciling "possessor" datives and "beneficiary" datives - Towards a unified voice account of dative binding in German.....	213
Werner Abraham Event arguments and modal verbs.....	243

Section IV: Measuring events

Patrick Caudal and David Nicolas

Types of degrees and types of event structures.....277

Regine Eckardt

Too poor to mention: Subminimal events and negative polarity items.....301

Kimiko Nakanishi

Semantic properties of split topicalization in German.....331

Author index.....357

Subject index.....361