

CONTENTS

| | | |
|----------|---|----|
| 1 | Introduction | 1 |
| | “The World in General” or “The World Around Here”? | 2 |
| | Islam/Muslims and Religion/Practice | 6 |
| | Research Methods and Sources | 8 |
| | Book Organization | 9 |
| | References | 13 |
| 2 | Visiting the Nisha Miskii | 15 |
| | Searching for Women’s Mosques in Malé | 16 |
| | Local Histories: One Island, One Nisha Miskii, and Three Mudahim | 18 |
| | The New Mudahim: Saeeda | 21 |
| | The Refugee Mudahim: Anisha | 24 |
| | The Former Mudahim: Fathimath | 26 |
| | Reflections | 29 |
| | References | 30 |
| 3 | Dimensions | 31 |
| | Maldivian Mosques and Their Spatial Contexts | 32 |
| | Constructing Muslim Spaces | 40 |
| | Gendered Muslim Spaces: Public/Private Dichotomy | 41 |
| | Gendered Muslim Spaces: Hijab or “the Veil” | 46 |
| | Gendered Muslim Spaces: The Ummah | 52 |

| | | |
|----------|--|-----|
| | Sites of Islamic Practice as Muslim Spaces | 56 |
| | Moving Beyond Space | 59 |
| | References | 61 |
| 4 | Narratives of Place | 65 |
| | Space and Place | 70 |
| | Time, Space, and Place | 75 |
| | The Indian Ocean Perspective | 78 |
| | The Archaeology and History of Mosques in the Maldives | 82 |
| | Whence Women's Mosques? | 87 |
| | References | 94 |
| 5 | Locating Women's Mosques | 99 |
| | What Makes a Mosque? | 102 |
| | A Seated View: Mosques as Sacred Spaces | 108 |
| | Defining Women's Mosques | 111 |
| | Patronage and Place | 112 |
| | Women's Mosques as Traditional Institutions—In China | 113 |
| | Historical Hints—The Lakshadweep Islands | 116 |
| | Historical Hints—Mainland India | 118 |
| | Historical Hints—The Comoros Islands and Mayotte | 119 |
| | Historical Hints—Coastal Kenya | 121 |
| | What Counts as a Mosque—Surau in Malaysia and Indonesia | 123 |
| | What Counts as a Mosque—Jakka Jigeen in Senegal | 125 |
| | Women's Mosques Initiatives—Gabiley, Somalia | 127 |
| | Contemporary Women's Mosques—Communities and Spaces | 128 |
| | Themes of Place | 130 |
| | References | 133 |
| 6 | Locating Women's Roles | 137 |
| | The Otinchalar of Uzbekistan | 139 |
| | The Pandei of the Philippines | 141 |
| | The Nyai and Mubaligha of Indonesia | 142 |
| | The Ahong of China | 144 |
| | The Alima of India | 147 |
| | Women's Mosque Communities | 150 |
| | Maldivian Mudahim Revisited—Roles and Duties | 154 |

| | | |
|----------|---|-----|
| | Mudahim and Prayer | 159 |
| | Is a Mudahim an Imam? | 161 |
| | References | 166 |
| 7 | Contexts and Discourses | 171 |
| | The Maldives, Island and Nation | 174 |
| | Transnational Flows—Historical Indian Ocean Travel | 180 |
| | Transnational Flows—Tourism | 183 |
| | Transnational Flows—Development Agencies | 185 |
| | Imaging and Belonging in the Global Ummah | 188 |
| | Locating Women's Mosques in the Silences | 195 |
| | References | 197 |
| 8 | Closures and Conclusions | 201 |
| | The End of the Nisha Miskii | 201 |
| | Locating the Nisha Miskii | 205 |
| | Reconciling Through Place | 209 |
| | Global Discourses and Ummah | 210 |
| | References | 216 |
| | Index | 217 |