

CONTENTS

List of Contributors	ix
1 Publics, Public Historians and Participatory Public History David Dean	1
PART I
Museums and Their Publics	19
2 Warsaw Rising Museum—On, with and for a Participatory Public Paweł Ukielski	21
3 For the Public, by the Public, on the Public: The Triple Role of the Public in School Museums of History in Russia Olga Konkka	40
4 Students as the Museums' Public Marta Kopiniak	57
5 On Fire, under Fire: Public Reactions to the Destruction of the Brazilian National Museum Ricardo Santhiago	71

PART II
Publics in Commemorations	89
6 The Persistence of the Vanishing Indian in the Massachusetts Merrimack Valley: The Passaconaway Monument Linda S. Thomas	91
7 Return to 1918: The Serbian American Public and First World War Memory at the Centenary Alexandra Zaremba	108
8 The Role of the Public in Shaping New Collective Memory(ies): The Irish Public and Their Representation of History during and after the Irish Civil War of 1922–1923 Caitlin White	126
9 The Role of Distinct Publics in Framing and Re-Framing the Images of Historical Figures. A Study on the Publics Remembering Edith Stein Ewa Woźniak-Wawrzyniak	142
PART III
Digital Publics	159
10 Researching the Public(s) through Internet Readers' Comments: Case Study of the Cursed Soldiers in Northeastern Poland Dorota Choińska	161
11 Video-Gamers as Recipients and Creators of Public History: Let's Play Videos as Public History Jakub Šindelář	180
12 The Users of Tripadvisor as the Public(s) of Public History: Case Study of the Hiroshima Peace Memorial Museum Agata Moskwa	199

- 13 The Public of a Public History Website—Notes
from the Field 214
Tihana Kušter

PART IV

Publics in Public History Research 229

- 14 Digital Oral History and the Ethical Dilemmas of Dealing with Three Kinds of Public in Public History 231
Sugandha Agarwal
- 15 Public between the State and Academia: Cultural and Political Essentialism of Public History in Russia 247
Alexander Khodnev

PART V

Conclusion 263

- 16 The Public(s) in Public History—Conclusions 265
Joanna Wojdon and Dorota Wiśniewska

- Index* 271