

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Introduction Alan P. Dobson and Steve Marsh	1
Part I. Origins
Chapter 1. 'This Golden Band': A Heritage of Anglo-American Correspondence Kristin A. Cook	21
Chapter 2. Burkean Peace Theory: Radicalism, Conservatism and the Constitutional Heritage of Britain and the United States in the Age of Revolutions Gavin Bailey	50
Part II. Ideological Philosophies
Chapter 3. Anglo-American Liberalism: The Tradition? Alan P. Dobson	85
Chapter 4. Of Friendships and Fissures: Anglo-American Conservatism Reed Davis	114
Part III. Ideas and Institutions
Chapter 5. Rivalry and Reform: Abolition, Race and Anglo-American Relations in the Nineteenth Century David Brown and Clive Webb	143
Chapter 6. The US Postcolonial e/Empire: The Case of the Missing Upper Case David Ryan	179

Chapter 7. The Anglo-American Tradition in International Law David Clinton	215
Part IV. Distinctive Features of an Anglo-American Tradition
Chapter 8. Reformulating Anglo-Saxon Identity: Intersections of Racism, National Identities and Transatlantic Stereotypes in the Nineteenth Century Robert M. Hendershot	241
Chapter 9. The Anglosphere: Rise and Demise of an Anglo-American Policy Idea David G. Haglund	267
Chapter 10. Anglo-American Relations: A Political Tradition of Special Relationship(s) Steve Marsh	294
Index	319