

Contents

Series preface	v
Acknowledgements	vii
List of illustrations	viii
List of contributors	xiii
Preface	xvi
Andrew Wallace-Hadrill
1. Zimbabwe and Rome: Remembering and forgetting ancient cities.....	1
Sam Ottewill-Soulsby and Javier Martínez Jiménez
Resilience and memory
2. The cities of Cassiodorus: The resilience of urban values.....	23
Andrew Wallace-Hadrill
3. A fundamentis noviter : The idea of the ancient city, the ninth-century Liber Pontificalis and civic thought in early medieval Italy	45
Thomas Langley
4. Resilient cities: Renewal after disaster in three late antique towns of the East Mediterranean.....	69
Louise Blanke and Alan Walmsley
5. The resilience of the late antique city in southern Gaul during the Romanesque period.....	109
Javier Martínez Jiménez
6. Roman planning as a model for urban modernity in Liberal Naples	137
Sofia Greaves
7. Prousa to Bursa: The reinvention of an Ottoman capital.....	165
Suna Çağaptay

Repurposed cities

8. Remembering the rose red city: Religion, pilgrimage and the shaping of Byzantine Petra..... 193
Marlena Whiting

9. 'Hunting diligently through the volumes of the Ancients': Frechulf of Lisieux on the first city and the end of innocence..... 225
Sam Ottewill-Soulsby

10. Remembering the ancient Iranian city from late antiquity to Islam:
Hamza al-Isfahani and the Sasanian Book of Kings.....247
Edward Zychowicz-Coghill

11. Traces of the ancients: The pre-Islamic monuments of the Maghrib in the medieval Arabic geographical tradition 275
Amira K. Bennison

12. Rituals of memory at the Olympieion precinct of Athens 297
Elizabeth Key Fowden

13. Afterword: Ancient cities in new presents..... 327
Javier Martínez Jiménez and Sam Ottewill-Soulsby