

Contents

Foreword	7
BRINSLEY SAMAROO

Introduction
FARZANA GOUNDER, BRIDGET BRERETON, JEROME EGGER AND HILDE NEUS	11

PART I: THE LEGACIES OF INDENTURE AND MIGRATION

1. The Legacy of Indian Indentureship in the Caribbean 1838-1920
PRIMNATH GOOPTAR	31
2. Creative Industries: Our Legacies, Our Future
SANDRA CLENEM	57
3. Shadowy Figures: Literary Representation of the Chinese in French-Caribbean Fiction
KATHLEEN GYSSELS	83

PART II: IDENTITY NEGOTIATIONS THROUGH MUSIC AND CUISINE

4. When the Music Soundin 'Sweet': Musical Instrument Construction, Performance Practice, and the Changing Aesthetics of Indian Trinidadian Tassa Drumming
CHRISTOPHER BALLENGEE	103
5. Baithakgána Semantics
NARINDER MOHKAMSING	125
6. Creolization and the Evolution of Indo- Trinidadian Cuisine
NASSER MUSTAPHA	141

PART III: COLLECTIVE MEMORIES OF SLAVERY
AND INDENTURE

7. Sitalpersad, a British Indian Interpreter in Colonial Suriname JEROME EGGER	165
8. Five Generations of a Surinamese Family 1873-2010: A Legacy KERMECHEND RAGHOEBARSING	187
9. Emancipation and Arrival: How Emancipation Day and Indian Arrival Day have Shaped Ethnic Identities in Twenty-first Century Trinidad and Tobago BRIDGET BRERETON	215
Contributors	237
List of Illustrations and Table	241
Index	243